

I do not want to see the only station I listen to (K-LOVE) to be displaced by a PFM. It is a possitive, family friendly and encouraging station. Its the only one that I feel comfortable with letting my kids hear and it spiritually encourages me. It is a possitibe enfluence on our community as well as many others through out the country.